Twin Pontiac Closing Out 1955 Models

The final all-out closeout of sale of 1955 Pontiacs is scheduled this week and at Twin Pontiac's third largest Pontiac dealer in Southern California, according to Richard and Robert Greenwald, twin owners. "The '55 models will be on display in another week," said Richard, "and we're forced to dispose of these brand new and executive Pontiacs now on hand. To do this, we're giving even more for your trade-in than ever before, and we'll also sell you a new Pontiac for $200 less than the price of any new Ford, Chevrolet, or Plymouth in comparable models such as sedans, station wagons, sport coupes, and hardtops. Just take your pick. We feel this is your choice opportunity to own a new luxury car for less than the low price three." Fifty-five '55 model Pontiacs are now in stock, the twins reported, in every color combination and model. The special sale will end when the cars are gone, which at present rates should take about four days, they said.

Association Formed Here To Study Hospital Needs

A citizens association has been formed to conduct an area survey to determine the need for a new hospital. It was announced last week by Dr. George J. Murphy and E. J. Champion, who were voted co-chairmen of the Harbor and South Bay Hospital Assn. Composed of Civic leaders from Manhattan Beach, Hermosa Beach, Redondo Beach, the entire Palos Verdes peninsula, Torrance, Wilmington, and San Pedro, the association proposes a hospital that will be operated not-for-profit by a Catholic nursing order. The medical facility, which will serve a population of 242,000, will be a community hospital. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Thomas J. O'Dwyer, Director of Health and Hospitals for the Los Angeles Archdiocese, is serving as special consultant for the group.

Square Dance Class Opens

Every Tuesday evening for the next eight months, the Torrance Recreation Department is sponsoring Adult Square Dance classes. At the end of the eight-month period the members of the class will receive diplomas for advanced square dancing and will be eligible to join the Corn Stompers Square Dance Club that meets on the second and fourth Saturdays each month. During the period the classes are held there will be monthly parties, live music dances, and other special features from time to time, including the Graduation Dance. Gerald Reesor, South Bay square dance caller, has been retained by the Recreation Department to conduct these classes. "Jerry" has conducted square dance classes for both adult and teenage groups in the Recreation Department. There is a small charge of $1 per couple per evening for the lessons. Couples interested in enrolling should do so within the next two weeks before the lessons become too advanced for beginners. Dancing begins at 8 p.m. and you can register in the Civic Auditorium, El Prado and Cravens Ave., before classes begin, or call FAirfax 8-4108.
